Lovely Sunday morning session under the trees at Billy Grace campground after Contra at the Caves the day before

From the President's Soapbox

A bit of catchup from the end of last year: the MFS Christmas party at All Saints was well attended despite the hot weather. We also unveiled some new banners for the society and subgroups to be used to give MFS an obvious profile at non-MFS events.

Sad news during December was the passing of Norm Merrigan. A fine musician and all-round good bloke, Norm was well known on the folk scene: he played in a number of bands in the Sydney area and was the director of the Turning Wave Festival in Yass until last year when he relinquished the position due to his medical condition. Our condolences go to his wife, Pam, and family.

Congratulations to EOMDOT for organising, once again, a most successful New Year's Eve dance at the Woolshed. It was the only MFS dance held at the YWS over the past year as bookings need to be secured much further in advance than previously due to its increasing popularity for weddings.

Dancing in the Park continued throughout December and January (despite the fee now levied by the NCA for our use of Stage 88) with good attendances, even with the unusually hot weather we are still experiencing. The final night saw calling by a variety of our regulars, however a highlight was the last dance where Simon gave everyone a taste of his new Contrapop format to the music of Bananarama (which gave the musos a chance to pack up before dark for a change). Everyone afterwards commented on how much fun it had been, so hopefully there may be an increase in attendees at Simon's regular Friday night workshops in Turner.

The floor of the North Canberra Baptist Church hall, which we refinished a year ago (as we use it for Contra, ISD and ECD workshops), received a couple of follow up coats of oil in January thanks to our volunteers, and is looking even better.

Ray Mulligan has moved his Settlers Sessions from Wednesday nights to 1st and 3rd Thursday afternoons (4-6 pm) at the new venue of the Beyond Q bookshop in Weston, our hosts for our last AGM. It is a most pleasant space, with the added advantage of the availability of refreshments. Contact Ray if you are interested in attending.

All regular dance workshops are back in swing so it will be good to catch up with a lot of you this month. BTW, the January – June dance Calendar is now on website.

Australian Settler's Music Sessions have moved in both time and place. The new venue is the lovely Beyond Q Bookshop at 11, Brierley Street, Weston (it's towards the back of the Arcade) and the new time is 4.30 to 6.30 pm on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month. The Tuesday Night Music Group (beginner to intermediate), which happens on almost every Tuesday of the year, now meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month from 7.30 to 10.00 pm at the Irish Club in Parkinson Street, Weston. Some members arrive earlier and have a meal at the Club Bistro. On other Tuesdays the group meets at various members' homes. Please contact one of the organisers, Julie on 62823523 or Robert on 62919135, for more information.

The upcoming (it may even have started as you read this) Australian Blues Music Festival at Goulburn is one of those rare things – a free event. It uses a number of venues in town - in hotels and clubs, one restaurant and a stage in Belmore Park. There is also a bus service which picks up at various motels around town. The website is www.ausytalianbluesmusicfestival.com.au and there is a facebook page (Australian Blues Music Festival).. The wonderful Jan Preston is going to be there – but only on Friday and Saturday. And talking of people I'm a big fan of Sharon Shannon is going to be at Cobargo, but also in Canberra before that, on Thursday 28th February at the Ainslie and Gorman Arts Centre in Elouera Street, Braddon + Susan O'Neill. Tickets via www.sharonshannon.com are $48.56.

Out and About

Contra in the Caves

Story from Rob Mahoney and Linda Aunela and pics from Judy Gorman and Jenni Marsh

We've just returned from a fabulous weekend at Wee Jasper. All the threatened thunderstorms passed us by. The only real rain happened during the concert - and we didn't notice from down in the cave. The cool change came through and made the dance a pleasant 25 degrees or so.

The concert featured a few new faces, many of the old regulars and a new song by Geoff, which kept us in stitches. Springtide showed how to make a cello sound like a ukulele. We asked ourselves 'why?'

Good dancing in the Wee Jasper Hall, which is now equipped with reverse cycle air conditioning! The Sunday session made a beautiful morning under the trees at Billy Grace. Thanks to everyone who came along and added to the weekend.

Dancing in the Park managed to happen after all the worries about the huge proposed cost of using Stage 88. All credit to President Geoff who managed to negotiate a very reasonable deal whilst some of us were gathering information and contemplating submissions to the Minister without much progress.

David Hunter has sent me some photos from two of the nights – 10th December and Scottish night on 7th January with Derek Synnott. I leave those of you who were there to work out which are which. You may well remember the rather striking sunset.

Blackboard plus Feature Act What the F'n'G

This is a fun afternoon for those wanting to share their love of music and play, sing or recite in an inviting and friendly atmosphere. Put your name on the blackboard to perform, or just get along and listen to some great music.

Feature Act What the F'n'G are Fred Pilcher and Georg Breu: Fred Pilcher is a 12-string acoustic guitar fingerpicker and vocalist who's been a fixture on the Sydney and Canberra music scenes since the mid 1970s. Returning to his acoustic roots, Fred covers a range of material that showcases the orchestral lyricism of a well-played 12-string. Fred is joined by Georg Breu on bass guitar. Together they take full advantage of the melodic interplay between their instruments and Georg plays some wicked bass solos. Fred and Georg will be joined by guitar virtuoso Johnny Reynolds, and mouth harpist extraordinaire Daniel McFeeley.

Coming up:

Sunday 10th March - Blackboard plus feature act New York Public Library

Sunday 14th April - Blackboard plus feature act Turnip Sundae
