Gosh, almost halfway through Winter already. Things are a bit quieter with Bushdance and Irish workshops taking a break through the school holidays but it is also notable that attendances at all weekly workshops have been rather light due to the increasing number of members currently swanning around other parts of Australia or overseas.

However, planning is now gearing up for Spring events and it is good to see some of our younger members taking on roles in this. Bec Tarrant has been working on preparations for the Irish October weekend and online bookings have now opened with information available on the Monaro Folk website.

Information about the Colonial Ball in September is also now up on the website –please note it has been moved back to the end of September to coincide with Floriade, and hopefully a warmer time of the month.

Christine, our membership secretary, has been very busy with renewals rolling in over the past month, however a number of bank deposits have not had a reference, which makes it difficult for both Christine and Linda to trace and attribute correctly, so please make sure you include your name in the reference field for any transfers. Also some transfers have been rejected because the account details were incorrect. They are: Name - Monaro Folk Society Inc; BSB – 325185; A/c Number – 03602040.

If you are a new member, remember you are very welcome to assist with any of our groups, so don't be shy about asking how you can do this. Feel free to contact me directly with any questions.

Don't forget that the Second Saturday Dance will be held at All Saints on July 13th. It will be preceded in the afternoon by our only Kids' Bush Dance for this year, so pass this on to anyone with primary aged children who have not gone away for the school vacation. And if you are wondering what to do this coming Sunday afternoon, the Merry Muse will be featuring Silvertonic, as well as blackboard performers at the Irish Club.

Finally, performer applications for the 2020 National Folk Festival close this Friday 12th July at midnight, so if you wish to apply, better be quick!

Geoff

Newport 1959 on Radio 2XX

Sixty years ago, on 11th -12th July 1959, a festival in Newport, Rhode Island inspired a folk revival, provided a template for subsequent festivals like our own National and launched the career of a last-minute walk-up, a barefoot 18-year-old singer called Joan Baez.

A Newport 1959 edition of Rebel Chorus on Radio 2XX (98.3FM and livestreaming from www.2xxfm.org.au) on Saturday 13th July (10.00 am – 12.00 midday) will time travel back to a festival which featured folk luminaries of the day like the chart-topping Kingston Trio, Pete Seeger, Odetta, the New Lost

Ramblers and Jean Ritchie, country bluesmen Sonny Terry, Brownie McGhee and the Reverend Gary Davis and bluegrass banjo virtuoso Earl Scruggs.

The Canberra Irish Club at Weston is holding a Christmas in July Lunch on Sunday 21st July at 12.00 noon,

Enjoy a festive two -course Christmas in July lunch with a beautifully presented traditional menu while being entertained by the talented instrumental five piece Celtic Folk band Mad Kelpie Playdate.

Their progressive music is played on small pipes, uilleann pipes, flute, guitar, and percussion and is influenced by bluegrass and pipe bands.

The cost is just $39 for the lunch and show. Bookings are essential via www.trybooking.com/521054

Ed's Note: I saw this band at Bulli and really enjoyed the performance . Should be a good event and I'll be there!

In early June MFS's Tuesday Night Music Group, now fondly known as the TiN Mugs, played for the social group Spiral which meets weekly at the Uniting Church in Gillies Street, Curtin at 10.00 am. The usual format is either a talk by someone knowledgeable in his/her field or a musical performance, followed by a sumptuous Morning Tea for which a gold coin donation is requested. The entertainment is totally free.

The TiN MuGs gave a lovely performance which included a nice selection of tunes and a couple of songs, one of which was the well-known Fields of Athenrye – ably sung by Chris Ward. The audience, which is mainly of a fairly senior nature, was very appreciative of the TiN MuGs' music.

Spiral will host the Canberra Mandolin Orchestra on Thursday 8th August and Margaret Wright OAM with the Canberra Recorder Orchestra on Thursday 22nd August.

If you are interested in going to Spiral call Brett on 62817684 or 0406 379 119 or email yeatsb@inet.net.au to go on the email list. (Photo by Tina Lynam)

Sunday 14th July – Blackboard plus feature act Silvertonic

This is a fun afternoon for those wanting to share their love of music and play, sing or recite in an inviting and friendly atmosphere. Put your name on the blackboard to perform, or just get along and listen to some great music.

Canberra-based band Silvertonic will feature their debut recording, Little Boat

Band members Miranda Bradley (vocals, guitar and occasional dobro), Peggy Daroesman (vocals, guitar, mandolin) and Bob Hefner (vocals, banjo and fiddle) are all performers and songwriters, and devotees of the classic alt-folk songbook and iconic writers and performers such as James Taylor, Crosby Stills and Nash, and the Indigo Girls.

Little Boat is a thoughtfully and lovingly crafted vessel that carries an eclectic cargo of seven original Silvertonic songs and tunes celebrating the people and places of our past and voicing our hope for a future that is always made brighter by music.

Here's what Ruth Hazleton, multi-talented musician, singer and folklorist, had to say about the CD:

"Silvertonic deliver well-crafted original songs rooted firmly in the traditions of American folk and country music. Their debut release, Little Boat, combines intricate string-band arrangements with rich three-part harmonies to complement each band member's original work." She adds, "Some of the work and writing on the album is just gorgeous!"

The above-mentioned CD will be available for sale at the Merry Muse

Coming up:

Sunday August 11th – Blackboard plus Canberra Shanty Singers
