

Numeralla Jig

Formation: Progressive lines of three

Music: 32 bar jig

Description: Lawrie Brown

- 4 Circle left -- (join hands and 8 slip steps left)
- 4 Circle right -- (keep hands joined and 8 slip steps to the right to finish in original place)
- 4 Star right -- (centre person with their right hand ends, finish with centres beside each other in centre of set)
- 4 Star left -- (centre person with their left hand ends, finish back in original places holding hands with partners)
- 4 Arch under right -- (centre person makes an arch with right hand end and left hand end goes under arch)
- 4 Arch under left -- (centre person makes an arch with left hand end and right hand end goes under arch)
- 4 Advance & retire -- (4 steps each way)
- 4 Pass through -- (8 steps to go to a new line of three)

Notes: Numeralla is a small village near Cooma, NSW, which holds a Folk Festival each January over the Australia Day long weekend. This dance was written there in 1978 by a group of people, in honour of the festival.