From the President's Soapbox

The public section of our new website, www.monarofolk.org.au, has been operational for a while and we have held a workshop to demonstrate to organisers how they can edit their material on the website: keeping their information up to date will now be up to them. We seem to have shaken out the bugs in regards to members' password access and I will be working on transferring relevant material from the members' wiki to the new site over the coming weeks – how quickly this happens will depend on available time. I would appreciate if you could register on the new site – it may take 24 hours for your registration to be validated and you will then have access to the members' section. You need to be a current financial member to register. If you have any difficulty please let me know as there may still be some gremlins at work that need tracking down.

You will also need to be a financial member to vote at the AGM in three weeks' time so it is a good time to renew your membership if you haven't done so yet. Group reports etc will be up on the website so please try to read them before the AGM. We will be in search of more committee members so please consider becoming a part of steering the MFS over the coming year.

Our bush dance flagship event, the Colonial Ball, is on this coming Saturday – tickets sales close this Wednesday. In case you were not aware, the NCA has decided to restructure their hiring arrangements for the Albert Hall from an hourly rate to a whole day, and as this will increase costs significantly the ball may not be held at this historic venue next year ... so enjoy this one!

Saturday 9th September will see the second of our kids' dances at Ainslie. The first one in July was very successful with about 70 parents and kids attending and we hope for a similar turnout for this one. If you have friends with primary age kids please let them know -details are on the website.

Society changes and the values of society change, not necessarily for the better. The trend seems to be one of fragmentation and a loss of "old values" - perhaps what we are losing most is a sense of community. The great value of what MFS does is not just in keeping musical traditions alive, it is this sense of community that is created through participating in playing music and dancing, the interaction of people in a creative endeavour that brings a sense of fulfilment in life, when perhaps other things aren't going so well. We have a good mob of members, but we need to keep our community invigorated by examining what we do, how we do it and by trying new approaches. As you will have seen in the Musings this year we have explored some initiatives that are meeting with success in promoting to a wider audience. This requires quite a commitment by the organisers and I wish to thank those of you who have assisted so much this past year in keeping the dream alive. Help is always welcomed in spreading the load so if you have some spare time, feel free to offer your assistance. Every little contribution will make it easier in the coming year.

Finally, as the great essayist, G.K.Chesterton, said: "If a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing badly". While there is a great sense of achievement in the pursuit of excellence, let us not forget that the important thing is that we enjoy what we are doing, who we are doing it with and don't sweat the small stuff.

MONARO FOLK SOCIETY THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL COLONIAL BALL

SATURDAY, 2ND SEPTEMBER 2017

The Monaro Folk Society's annual Colonial Ball will be held on Saturday 2nd September 2017 at the Albert Hall, Canberra.

Music by The Heritage Ensemble Band with Heather Clarke calling. The Heritage Ensemble Band has made regular appearances at Monaro Folk Society Dances over recent years. Heather Clarke, an accomplished dance historian and caller, is widely regarded as one of Australia's leading dance callers.
